

News Release

PR 4084

23 February 2010

For Immediate Release

4 Fathers Free Event

Calling all Fathers to come and have fun, learn new skills and enjoy time with your children in Gregynog Woods, Tregynon, near Newtown on Saturday 27th February, 10am -1pm.

Re-live your own childhood years with den building, outdoor cooking, survival skills and wood carving.

Sessions are FREE and funded by Powys Children and Young People's Partnership, Newtown Integrated Children Centre and supported by Montgomeryshire Forest Schools.

All fathers must be accompanied by a responsible child or children between the ages of 8 to 16, suitable clothing required, please bring your own refreshments.

If you miss this chance then further sessions will take place on Saturday 27th March, Saturday 24th April, Saturday 29th May and Saturday 26th June, 2010

Booking is essential on 01597 826058 or call Karen Finucane on 07775 792873 for more information.

For further information please contact:

Am fanylion pellach cysylltwch â:

Michelle Wozencraft,

Swyddog Cyfathrebu/Marchnata

Communications/Marketing Officer

Partneriaeth Plant a Phobl Ifanc, Cyngor Sir Powys

Children and Young People's Partnership, Powys County Council

Ffôn/Tel: 01597 826975

Ebost/Email: michelle.wozencraft@powys.gov.uk

Powys County Council is a unitary authority serving a population of about 129,600, covering an area of 519,700 hectares, almost a quarter of Wales.

It employs over 8,000 staff and has its headquarters in Llandrindod Wells and Shire Offices in Welshpool and Brecon.